

Spring Break - Family Itinerary

Day One

Morning: Start your day off with a delicious breakfast at Lulu's for the Love of Food. Lulu's offers an extensive menu featuring many of the breakfast favorites, such as chicken and waffles, eggs Benedict, and avocado toast. For the parents, there are morning cocktails, cheers, a bloody mary, and a spiked cold brew to start the day. Afterward, take the family to the Josephine County Library to ease into the day. Let creativity run wild as each family member brings their artistic vision to life. Or you can jump straight into the adventure and head over to Tom Pearce Park, enjoy the outdoors, play some frisbee golf, and let the kids run around at the brand-new multi-age playground. Need an indoor space to get kid wiggles out? Check out the 60,000 cubic feet Kid Zone at Club Northwest. Mornings are a great time for a guided fishing trip for Winter Steelhead. Fishing trips or fun for the whole family, or a great parent break while on vacation.

Afternoon: Keep the day going and refuel the family at Wild River Brewing & Pizza Co. The menu offers something for everyone beyond pizza to sandwiches and salads. Enjoy your time together in this family-friendly atmosphere with their arcade, and then continue the adventure. Check the weather and decide your next activity. Always be prepared for those Pacific Northwest rainy days and head over to Caveman Bowl for some indoor fun with the family bowling. If it's a lucky sunny day, you can stay in town and go for a stroll at Riverside Park, or if you're feeling adventurous, head over to the Rogue River Trail. Layer in some education on the self-guided Rogue Valley Food Trail, for farm experiences, for local foods, and for farm animal encounters.

Evening: Wrap up the day, but not the fun, kick back at Weekend Breer Co., offering something for each member of the family. Kids can enjoy the family-friendly surroundings with their pick of the food carts, while parents can grab a beer, wine or mocktail and choose from indoor or outdoor seating.

Day Two

Morning: Change things up for day two; for families with younger children (0-5), start the day at Little Beans Play Cafe. Let the kids get some energy out in this vibrant indoor playroom while you can sit down and watch the kids while you sip back on a cup of coffee. If your children have unique sensory needs, The Sensory Space is a free indoor play space catering to children of all abilities. Next, get breakfast for the full crew; choose between Ma Mosa's, Frida's Brunch & Cantina, or Casablanca Coffee & Grill. Ma Mosa's offers mouth-watering cocktails and rotating dishes. Frida's has a variety of treats, from tacos and benedicts to pancakes and more. Casablanca's has a range of breakfast sandwiches and wraps.

Afternoon: Work off breakfast by walking around downtown and go shopping. Choose from the selection of boutiques, such as Shoefly, Wild Rogue Emporium, Fiona Bean, Rita's, and many more. If you're into antiques, there is an abundance of options from Old Town Antique Mall, Elegance Antiques, Rusty Nuggets, and more. If you want to take your exploration of downtown one step further, follow the Public Art Walking Map. Check out all of the awesome artwork downtown has to offer, from murals to sculptures, and learn more about the character and history of Downtown Grants Pass end your tour at the Grants Pass Museum of Art. On your journey through town, stop by and grab some treats at GG Sugarplums Bakery or Sandi's Candies.

Evening: Wrap up the day at your choice of Area 61 Taphouse or Taprock Bar and Grill. At Area 61, choose from a selection of food carts and, depending on the day, weekly live events or the arcade. At Taprock Bar and Grill, enjoy a nice meal overlooking the Rogue River in this classy dining lodge.

Day Three

Morning: Plan a picnic breakfast along the Rogue River at Riverside Park or Reinhart Volunteer Park with fabulous homemade baked goods from Babes Bakery, Dassh Bakery, or Heavenly Sweets. After breakfast, the family can take a glass-blowing lesson at The Glass Forge. While your pieces are cool, explore the rehabilitation work and wildlife viewing at Wildlife Images.

Afternoon: On your way back to town, stop in for a cheese tasting and farm tour at the Rogue Creamery Dairy. The only U.S. Dairy to win the World Champion at the 2019/2020 World Cheese Awards for their Rogue River Blue Cheese. Fill out lunch with healthy options from True Juice in downtown. For the afternoon head into the Illinois Valley to view the carnivorous Darlingtonia plants at the 8 Dollar Mountain Botanical Wayside. Make a second stop at Little Falls Campground for a short hike to the Little Falls on the mighty Illinois River. Take in the quirky art display at It's a Burl Gallery.

Evening: For dinner in Cave Junction, stop in at Taylor's Sausage, a local favorite for all meat products. Dine in at their cafe or enjoy their new table service dining restaurant, Pappy T's. After a delicious dinner, head back to Grants Pass to the Josephine County Fairgrounds for Dance lessons with the Grants Pass Dance Club or catch a play with Barnstormers Community theater, the longest running community theater in Oregon. If you're looking to dine back in Grants Pass, make dinner an unforgettable experience with Cynthia's Home Sweet Home Murder Mystery Diner.

Don't let the fun end there!

Want to extend the adventure? Grants Pass functions as the hub of the Rogue Valley, offering a great place to start as you head down to the Applegate or Illinois Valley, where you can enjoy an extensive selection of Vineyards. You can also enjoy treehouses, ziplines, and other treeline activities at Out n' About Treehouses or Vertical Horizons. Weather permitting, in March, you can book your Cave Tour for a visit to the Oregon Caves National Monument or make your way over to Crater Lake National Park. Also, a short drive south and you can find yourself in the Redwoods Forest. For even more fun activities, review the 50 Things to Do in Grants Pass map.
